

6516206541.txt

I would like to offer my opinion that satellite radio be allowed to keep offering weather and traffic information. Since it is a pay-service, I do not feel that it conflicts with normal radio service. If someone does not wish to pay for satellite, they can still get traffic and weather from local radio stations.
Thank you.

Donald Becker